“ Pat & Family, I will always remember Elsie. She and Moma use to do a lot of things together when they lived down the walk from each other. She was always so soft spoken and pleasant. I know that you all will miss her deeply, but just remember that God wanted to take her home with him and his angels to care for her. She will be remembered in my heart.##imported-begin##Gwen Williams Taylor##imported-end##

“ *To the Allen Family, My name is Andrew White. I resided at 2207 Creighton Rd.Eventhough, I was in jr. high school while my sister Ann and Elsie were in high school; we all got together to have fun. I admired her greatly andeven had a little crush on her. She never noticed me because I was too young. I haven't seen her since I was eighteen. But, I still remember the times. She will be missed, but she always will be remembered. I want to express my sincere sympathy to the family. All of you are in my thoughts and prayers. “ To The Family of Elsie Virginia Allen: Please accept my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is truly difficult. The Bible provide us with God's comforting words at Isaiah 25:8 that soon "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces". May these words bring you a measure of comfort in this time of sorrow.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. We all look forward to the time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). May the family and friends find comfort in God and the many wonderful promises contained in His word the Bible because Titus1:2 assures us that he cannot lie. Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C.
