“ It's been several months since your loved one died, but it's soemthing we never get over; the death of a loved one. I'm so sorry your family went through this, and I hope you have been able to carry on. I just want to leave you with this comforting thought from God's word. He promises at Isaiah 25,8 that one day he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces. Then all of the dead in God's memory will be brought back to life, according to John 5:28,29. May these wonderful promises from out loving father Jehovah, continue to comfort you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mr. Fitzgerald, Please accept my condolences on the loss of your loved one. It truly is unfortunate that we experience the sorrow associated with the loss of one we love. However, there is a source of comfort for us. God's Word, the Bible assures us that "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort...comforts us in all our tribulation." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4). It also offers us the solution to our source of distress at Acts 24:15 and John 5:28,29. Please read these verses and feel free to contact me to discuss this wonderful provision further.##imported-begin##Gwen Winston##imported-end##
