“ I have not had the privilege of meeting Elva, but i can tell just by her long life and wonderful smile that it's only obvious that she became a blessing to many peoples lives. I wanted to just share a a scripture of encouragement from God's Word, The Bible, that I've found to really help myself and others at hard times like these, it's at John 5:28, 29, and it says that, " All those in the memorial tombs will come out." So there's a very refreshing and comforting promise for us whom loose loved ones, because it gives hope and assures they will live again.
