“ Happy Thanksgiving mom. I love you! Till we meet again.

Karen Simms - November 28, 2013 at 05:03 AM

“ I love and miss you so much. The boys miss you a lot. Especially that spoiled Nigel. You have him rotten. Things aren't the same without you. I wished we would have had more time together. But it was your time. I appreciate all that you have done for me. The holidays are here and I feel so alone and out of place. I love you mom. From Karen

“ Greetings Jones's ! May you all have peace in this time of lost of Ms.Elvera. I hope that knowing others cares help to ease the pain of losing some one in death. Ms.elvera was 72 years old when she die. The bible say at Ps.90:10 that some may live to be 70 and others to 80 because of special mightest, she had part a in forfilling that bible scripture. We can have great hope to the time when no one will ever die again, that is the greatest news ever told. May the happy times spent with Ms.Elvera stay close to your hearts. I send my condolences to you all. Crosby,lillian.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I wish to share my deepest sympathy with the family and friends of Ms. Jones. Many people have cherished memories of their loved ones and this brings them great comfort and peace. One day soon by means of God's Kingdom that true peace will be a reality. May your family find comfort in the words found at Isaiah 25:8,9##imported-begin##K. Smith##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. The Bible reveals the comforting hope of the resurrection. A wonderful time when God will bring our dead loved ones back to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. {Revelation 21:3-5} Acts 24:15 declares- "there is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength as you think deeply on this loving promise from the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Hill##imported-end##
