“ Sis. Valencia & Sis. Conaway, my prayers are with you and your family during this time of bereavement. Even though I was unable to attend the homegoing services for your father/husband, I am there in spirit. May the peace of God's love surround you and carry you through. Take just one day at a time and the pain will get easier but Mr. Elvin will never be forgotten. May the poem that I submitted to the family show the love that I carry in my heart for you all. In Jesus' Love, Sis. Sommers##imported-begin##Sis. Darlene Sommers##imported-end##

“ I am so very sorry that your family lost your dear loved one. Death touches us in a way that nothing else does. It cuts so deeply, and it is something we can never come to grips with. Jesus and his father Jehovah cares so deeply about our pain, and have promises to do away with the scourge of sickness and death in the near future. While Jesus was on earth he lost his friend Lazarus. Jesus was so compassionate and had a very kind heart so he was affected as we all are when someone we ove dies. the bible at John 11:35 says, "Jesus gave way to tears." "Therefore, the jews began to say, "See what affection he used to have for him." Jesus has the same love and affection for us, and he promises to ressurect our loved ones just as he ressurected Lazarus." John 5:28,29 says, "Donot marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out." So based on the power Jehovah and Jesus have obver life and death, we can rest assured we will see our loved ones again. Please be comforted.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##
