“ To the loving family of "ELZINIA". May the many fond memories you have of your loved one bring joy and laughter to your heart and mind until you're reunited with her again by means of the resurrection hope. (John 11:33-44) At that time, she will never again say, "I am sick". (Isaiah 33:24) I'm so sorry for your loss.

“ I wish to extend my condolences to you for your loss. I did not know Elzinia; however, having experienced the death of a loved one myself, I can only imagine the host of emotions that you are experiencing. I found that meditating on God's promises of a time when no resident will say they are sick (Isa. 33:24) and the time when death will no longer be (Rev. 21:3,4) provide me with strength when needed. I pray that the fond memories that you share will provide you with a sense of comfort during your time of sorrow.
