

Emerson L. Knox-Bey

March 25, 1933 - July 2, 2019

EMERSON was selected to be amongst the angels on July 2, 2019. He was born on March 25, 1933 to the late Roland and Mattie Knox in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the youngest of four siblings. Emerson was educated in Baltimore City Public Schools.

As a teenager Emerson developed a love and strong passion for automobiles, motorcycles and music. These remained to be lifelong passions. As an adult he explored various employment avenues to include working for the United States Postal Service for several years.

He later joined his father and they worked side by side at Knox Moving Company, a family owned business. Upon the demise of his father, Emerson took over operations and ran the company. During this time, he can be credited with providing employment for numerous people. The company was later dissolved and Emerson became employed with the Baltimore City Police Department where he worked out of the Western District, patrolling the Sandtown area. Emerson ended his career and retired from the University of Maryland Campus Police.

Upon entering adulthood Emerson was quite the lady's man. He encountered several wives at an early age, Betty, Marjorie, Eloise, and Martha D. Knox, all whom preceded him in death. While at the University of Maryland, he met Ms.

Sharon Gregg, with whom he shared a lifelong relationship, both unique and astonishing.

Emerson was preceded in death by his parents, two siblings, and a son Emerson Knox Jr. He is survived by and leaves to cherish his memory: three daughters, Cynthia Knox, Renay Carroll Allen (Henry), Myra Kitchen (Michael); and three sons, Donald Knox, Roland Knox (Deborah) and Thurston Knox; fifteen grandchildren and twenty-two great-grandchildren; one sister, Mabel Knox; and a host of nieces, nephews and friends. In addition to his family, acknowledgement is given to Ms. Sharon Gregg, his significant other.
