

Emily L. Brown

January 10, 1939 - December 20, 2004

Emily Louise Wilson Brown, daughter of the late Roosevelt Wilson and Rose Ella Owens, was born on January 10, 1939 in Halifax, North Carolina. She departed this life on December 20, 2004 after a brief illness. Emily was born again in Christ Jesus in her youth. She was an awesome minister of Christ, quietly expressing God's unconditional love and tenderness. She received her education at Dunbar High School where she studied Home Economics. Emily married the late James Brown in 1968, and out of this union, three daughters were born, Shirley, Terri Lee, and Joanne. Her main focus was caring for Mr. Brown and the children. Emily made numerous friends wherever she went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew her. She was always a true friend and a devoted mother. She leaves to mourn: three daughters, Shirley Brown, Terry Lee Brown, and Joanne Brown Atkins; one brother, Moses Wilson; one son-in-law, Arthur Atkins; two sisters-in-law, Rosette B. Alford and Jannie L. Avent; three grandchildren, Cleopatra A. Brown, Jada M. Blackwell, and Joel A. Atkins; seven nieces, three nephews, and a host of friends.

“ "And death will be no more. Neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away"- Revelations 21:4. I am sorry your family had to experience the pain that comes along with death. But the Bible can offer us condolences. There is also the hope that you will see your loved one again in a resurrection. May Jehovah God and his Word, the Bible, be a source of comfort for you.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
