

Emma B. Higgins

December 14, 1922 - January 7, 2007

Quietly on Sunday, January 7, 2007, Emma Higgins slipped away. Emma, daughter of the late Mazie and Irvin Lindsay, was born on December 14, 1922 in Staunton, Virginia. She accepted Christ at an early age. As a young woman, Emma met and married Howard Higgins. From this union seven children were born, five sons and two daughters. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. After graduating from high school Emma attended cosmetology school. She continued her education, receiving an AA degree from Coppin State College and her Master's degree from Morgan State University. Emma worked at Hutzler's Department Store while obtaining her degree. She later went on to teach in the Baltimore City Public School System, until she retired. Known in the neighborhood as Miss Emma, she always had a kind word, a nice meal and stern advice for the young people. She cooked, sewed, did hair for her family and friends. Everyone loved her macaroni and cheese. She leaves to cherish fond memories: her daughter, Paulette Medley; son Tyree; two daughters-in-law, Louise and Evelyn; eighteen grandchildren, twenty-six great-grandchildren, one great-great-grandchild; sister, Helen Jones and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends. Her husband, Howard Higgins; four sons, Loudell, Howard, Dennis and Felmore; daughter, Barbara Reeves; two brothers, Irvin and Loudell; sister, Juanita Hargrove; granddaughter, Loletta Higgins; four grandsons, Aimi, Tommy, Terrance and Pete all preceded her in death.
