

Emma Lou Baytops

November 29, 1942 - December 16, 2011

EMMALOU BROWN BAYTOP, was born to the late Edith Clark and Wilson Perry Brown on November 29, 1942 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on Friday, December 16, 2011. Emma spent her formative years in Fallston, Maryland and was educated in the Harford County school system. She retired from Westinghouse Corporation after thirty years of dedicated service. Emma was a lover of cooking, shopping and game shows. She loved her family unconditionally and had a most unique and special relationship and bond with her brother and “the sisters”. His greatest love was her Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. She was a member of Tabernacle Methodist Church in Harford County for sixteen years. She was also a member of Ivory Temple and Greater Harvest Baptist Church where she served on the choir, usher board and as a pastor’s aid. She was also faithful member of Triumph Community Church in Baltimore, Maryland. Her favorite scripture was Proverbs 3:5-8, “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths. Be not wise in thine own eyes: fear the Lord, and depart from evil. It shall be health to thy navel, and marrow to thy bones”.

Emma leaves to celebrate her life, her children, Stacey Keene Lawson, Kelly Keene and Robert Baytops, Jr. lovingly known as “Grams”; she was blessed with teen grandchildren and seven great grandchildren whom adored her; four sisters: Irene Dandridge, Glenn Jackson, Marion Elaine Benson and Cecelia

Coleman and one brother Wilson Brown. She also leaves to celebrate her life a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and friends.
