

Emma Bragg

May 4, 1917 - February 4, 2003

Emma V. Bragg, daughter of the late Oscar and Betty Batten was born on May 4, 1917 in Carrollton, Virginia. She was called home to rest from her labors on Tuesday, February 4, 2003. She was educated in the schools of Carrollton, Virginia and moved to Baltimore, Maryland at an early age. One of the happiest days of her life was the day she joined Orchard Street United Methodist Church. She was a faithful member until her health failed. She was employed briefly until she met and married the late William Bragg. She later worked at Cat's Paw Factory as an assembly line worker. She leaves three children and one stepson to cherish her memory. They take comfort in knowing that their mother is now with their father and their late brother, Vernon Bragg. The children are Yvonne Holland, Jerome Bragg, Juanita Sykes and William Bragg, Jr. Her many special traits will always be cherished by her grandchildren, Blaine Bragg and Crystal Sykes. She will also hold a special place in the hearts of her step grandchildren, Raymond, Chuck and Kevin Bragg. Nieces and nephews will mourn the passing of their aunt; goddaughters, Jeannie Washington and Vivian Palmer will also miss her. Because of her loving, caring and giving nature, as well as her genuine smiles, many other relatives, friends and neighbors, will miss her.
