

Emma F. England

October 10, 1931 - December 26, 2017

Frances England, departed this life suddenly on December 26, 2017. She was known by "Frances" which was her middle name. Her given name, Emma Frances Rice, born to the late Lillie Mae Rice (nee Smith) and Harvey Rice in Chalotte, North Carolina. Frances was one of three children, a brother and sister that preceded her in death. Frances was educated in the North Carolina School System.

Frances came to Baltimore in 1950 where she met Milton England. Frances and Milton were married on February 22, 1953. From their union were born seven children. Frances not only took care of her family and home, but also worked. She was employed at Farley Funeral home for over 25 years. Frances also worked as a private duty assistant for several years until her retirement.

Frances became active in a couple of organizations, one was called "Seven Pals Saving Club" and the other was "post 285 Ladies Auxiliary". Frances was a soft spoken woman who talked with authority and knowledge. You could always count on a phone call from her for your birthday, holidays, and just to see how you were doing. Frances enjoyed watching the religious programs and quoting scriptures; her favorite was the 23rd Psalm.

Frances was preceded in death by her eldest daughter Veronica (Vee).

Frances leaves to cherish her memory: husband, Milton England; her children, Milton Jr, Reginald, Carla, Adrian, Dont'e and Shean; three daughters-in-law, Reverend Joyce, Dawn and Lisa; 23 grandchildren; 17 great grandchildren; three sisters-in-law, Alice Jones, Geneva England and Mozell Hopkins; three brothers-in-law, Bernard Jones Wayne and James England; goddaughter, Shannon; and a host of other relatives and friends and especially, Margie, who would visit with her often.
