

Emma Louise Facon

August 25, 1918 - April 13, 2013

EMMA LOUISE FACON, daughter of the late James Edward Pope and Halley Pope, was born on August 25, 1918 in Richmond, Virginia. Emma, known to everyone as “La La or “Lolly,” departed this life on April 13, 2013 at the Manor Care Nursing Home in Baltimore City, Maryland.

Emma received her education in the Richmond City Public School System and later moved to Baltimore City, where she worked for the Baltimore City Public School System until retirement. La La met and married Macio Facon in the 1950's. They remained married until the Lord saw fit to call Macio home in 2011. La La and Macio never bore children, but she was very active in theirs lives of her nieces and nephews, who dearly miss her smiling face and exciting personality.. HER FAVORITE WORDS TO ALL WAS “GET A JOB AND PAY YOUR WAY!!!”

La La loved clothes. She loved to shop and always stated how “sharp” she looked. La La loved to dance as she would snap her fingers and dance down to the floor and back again. She always enjoyed spending time with family laughing and having fun. She always had some kind of joke or story to tell you how it “T-I-IS” as her middle finger, which was broken as a child and fixed in that position, pointed straight up. She was joy to be around and will be sincerely missed.

La La was preceded in death by both: her husband, Macio Facon and her sister, Shirley Harris. La La leaves to cherish her memory; nieces, Emma Rice, Jacqueline Manns and Shirley Vincent nephews, Eugene Rice, William Rice-Bey (Elenor Rice -Bey) and Rickey Rice (Gloria Rice); and a host of great-nieces, great-nephews, family and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
