

Emma J. Conner

September 25, 1943 - May 23, 2008

Emma Conner was born September 25, 1943 to the late Lessie and Mack Conner Sr. in Orangeburg, South Carolina. She was the third born of eight children. She graduated from Frederick Douglass High School, attended college and earned a bachelor's degree. She worked in D.C. at the Treasury Department. She left there and worked in Baltimore at the S.S.A. In 1992 she joined the Gospel Tabernacle Baptist Church. She was a member of the Aim High Club for many years. She was also a member of the Reginald L. Kennedy Outreach Ministry and an usher for the Senior Board. She leaves to cherish her memory: her brother, Mack Jr.; sisters, Alberta, Barbara, Faye, and Rhonda; sister-in-law, Shirley; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends. Also a very close friend, Mrs. Elsie Frasier and close cousins.

Tribute Wall

“ Emma J. Conner

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Hi ! Conner's ! I would like to send fellow feeling to you all.It hurt when we loss our dear love one. We can find comfort from our heavenly father as 1 Cor.1:3-4 say in all our tribulations in these last days. I am looking forward to the time when dying will be a thing of the PAST, Rev.21:3-5. May your journey of life be bright as the time comes for Ps.145:16 to be fulfilled.##imported-begin##L.D.C##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I offer my warm condolences to the family and friends of Emma. May Jehovah God bless you and comfort you in the many days without your loved one. When we lose someone we love in death, it is truly a devastating and life-changing event for all of those who loved that person. We never forget them, and their memories linger on in our minds. We remember the good times shared, and the smiling and dear face of our dear ones. One day Emma will live again, because God has promised a ressurection for the dead. At Acts 24:15 the apostle Paul said: "And I have hope towards God that there is going to be a ressurection of bothe the righteous and the unrighteous. May you find comfort in Jehovah's word, and may your precious memories of Emma live on in your minds and hearts.##imported-begin##Rita Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family. We will miss Emma tremendously. May God be you all at this time of need.##imported-begin##Christine Berkley##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM