

Emma J. Jenkins

December 4, 1913 - January 31, 2008

Emma Jane Jenkins, daughter of the late Emmett and Mary Wilkinson, was born on December 4, 1913 in Virgilina, Virginia. She had one brother, the late James Wilkinson. She departed this life on January 31, 2008 after a lengthy illness. She received her education in the Baltimore City Public School System. During her youth she had many jobs to help support her family. She married to the late Raymond Jackson, and out of that marriage Geraldine and the late Delores was born. Emma was later married to the late Frank Jenkins with whom she spent many happy years. Out of that union Bertha Mae Jenkins was born. Emma liked keeping busy. She loved to crochet and made the most delicious rolls you ever wanted to taste. She was a tough lady. She loved things to be neat and orderly. During her many years among us, she had many friends, and they spent many hours on the front steps catching up with each other. Emma was the official block watcher before anyone had ever heard about the block watch. She would let you know if anyone came to your house when you were out. She will certainly be missed. She leaves to mourn; two daughters, Geraldine Bland and Bertha Jenkins; two granddaughters, Geral Lee Gross and Novellia Taylor; two great-grandchildren, De'Vette Lee Andrews and Robert Summerfield Gross, Jr.; three great-great-grandchildren, Alia Tashia Richardson, Tashia Alia Skinner, Dawan Lee Lawrence; one grandson-in-law, Robert Summerfield Gross Sr. and a host of other relatives and friends.
