A Fallen Limb

A limb has fallen from the family tree.

I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me.

Remember the best times, the laughter, the song.

Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you.

Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through.

My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest.

Remembering all, how I truly was blessed.

Continue traditions, no matter how small.

Go on with your life, don't worry about falls,

I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin.

Until the day comes we are together again.

I will trully miss Ms. Emma. When I lived in Richmond, I use to be at her home every week to run errands for her. I didn't mind. We loved riding around and getting out the house. When I moved to Florida! We would talk every week. I can't believe I won't talk to her anymore. :-(she will trully be missed.

“ I have so many fond memories of Gerrie, I called her. I lived in Richmond, VA for several years and we always enjoyed each others company, family and friends festivities. She always had a open ear and a soothing choice of words for anybody who was troubled. A very friendly and gentle soul. Gerrie, I'm so sorry that you've gone away, but you're in a better place and there's no more pain. Much love until we meet and laugh again...

“ Condolences and Prayers for the Family. I had the pleasure of knowing Gearldine, since 8th grade. I am missing our daily conversations on the phone, discussing our Soaps and other things in our everyday lives. I know that time and prayers will heal it all. May the Lord be with you and keep you strong. Frances Williams Winfield.
