

Emma Lee Phillips

February 5, 1923 - November 1, 2001

Emma Lee Phillips, daughter of the late Tom and Pearlie Coley, was born February 5, 1923 in Battlesboro, North Carolina. She was the youngest of twenty-two children, in which twelve survived births. She departed this life on November 1, 2001, after a lengthy illness. She received her education in North Carolina. Emma Lee came to Baltimore in 1940. While in Baltimore she worked as a factory worker and as an entrepreneur. As years passed, Emma Lee became a member of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church and later became a faithful member of Providence Inspirational Baptist Church. Emma Lee married the late William H. Phillips, Sr., and out of this union four children were born, Lloyd, Thelma Pearl, and William. Preceding her in death are nine sisters and one brother. She is survived by: two sons, Lloyd E. Phillips, Sr., and William H. Phillips, Jr., Baltimore, MD; two daughters, Thelma L. Smith, Silver Spring, MD and Pearl V. Foote, Willis, Texas; one sister, Catherine Briscoe, Waldorf, MD; one son-in-law, James C. Smith, Silver Spring, MD; one daughter-in-law, Delores I. Phillips, Baltimore, MD; two brothers-in-law, and one sister-in-law. Twelve grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, a host of nieces, nephew and other relatives and friends also survive her
