“ Hi Emma Lee it has been a while since you have been gone. I still don't believe it, it seems as if you left so fast. You are no longer in pain and you are with your son and grandsons and husband. Want you to know we are all doing fairly well, Johnnie is sick but he has a lot of support from us all, even me (LOL) his ex wife. Lynette's health is about the same. Wish you were here but I know you are where you want to be, with our Heavenly Father. I thank you for loving me and treating me like one of your daughters from day one when we first met. I will never forget all that he did for me and my children your grand children. You have been the best mother in law there is on this earth and I trustly mean that. I still miss you. I love you Emma Lee. Judy

“ I am so sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Death is truly heartbreaking, and it is something that we never get used to. God didnt desire death for us, because he created all life and he hates death, especially the death of his faithful servants. One day he promises an end to all sickness and death in his due time, and all the dead ones in his memory will come up out of the graves. John 5:28,29 1st Cor 15:26. May you find much comfort in the sure hope of he ressurection. Keep these words close to your hearts found at John 11:25 where Jesus said, "I am the ressurection and the life. "He who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. May your precious memories of Emma, and fond memories of happier days spent with her, be a source of hope to you in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
