

EMMA LOCKWOOD

May 10, 1938 - October 15, 2019

EMMA LEE LOCKWOOD, daughter of the late Emma Neal Barnes, was born on May 10, 1938 in Scotland Neck, North Carolina. She departed this life on October 15, 2019 after having a great life on this earth.

Emma and Johnny Lockwood moved to Baltimore, where she lived and raised ten children in one household. Soon she separated and met the late Nathaniel Bowman, her soul mate, who she loved and spent the rest of her life with until departure in 2015.

Emma was a lovely wife and mother. She loved reading books and doing crossword puzzles. She had a beautiful heart and big smile, especially when she was around her big family that always came around showing unconditional love and affection. She was a big piece of our family. She was the glue that held our family together. She called herself. "Big to the mother E. yes that's me", but to us she was a wonderful wife, mother, grandmother and a caretaker; She was our heart, our world, our everything.

She was preceded in death by her son David.

She leaves to mourn: five sons, Johnny, Thomas, Austin, Joseph, and Kenneth; four daughters Mary, Barbara, Katrina and Valerie, grandchildren, great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and close friends.

“ God looked around his garden
and found an empty space
Then he looked down upon this earth
and saw your tired face
He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest
God's garden must be beautiful
He only takes the best

Forever in my heart, forever in my soul, loving you always
