

Emma Rice

March 28, 1928 - July 18, 2008

Emma Yancy Rice, one of eight children of the late Luco Fanies and Emma Hargrove Faines, was born on March 28, 1928. After a lengthy illness, she departed this life on July 18, 2008. She received her education in the North Carolina school system. Emma, affectionately known as “Snue”, enjoyed organizing family get togethers. She was a very outgoing and loving person. She accepted God at an early age in North Carolina at Mt. Zion Christian Church. Upon moving to Baltimore, her employment consisted of being a seamstress for Better Garment and other locations. Emma was married to the late Wilson Rice. They were united with no children to this union. She was the mother of the neighborhood. In later years, she had a long-standing, loving friend, the late Mr. Edward Brown. Four sisters and one brother preceded her in death. Emma leaves to mourn; one brother, Frank Faines, one sister, Nannie Hawkins; sister-in-law, Ophelia Faines (all of Baltimore), a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ I send my sincere and heartfelt condolences to your family at this time. I am so sorry for your loss, and pray that you receive much comfort from the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulations. 2nd Cor 1:3,4 Our God does not desire death for anyone, because he hates death, and desires eternal life for all obedient mankind. One day his purpose to end all sickness and death will be realized, and all who are sleeping in death will be raised back to life in the resurrection. At John 11:25 Jesus said: "I am the resurrection and the life. "Everyone exercising faith in me even though he dies, will come to life." May you find much comfort and strength in Jehovah's wonderful promise of salvation.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
