

Emma L. Rice

May 11, 1940 - March 21, 2018

“He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away.”

Revelation 21:4

EMMA LOUISE RICE, fondly known as “Tee”, was born in Richmond Virginia on May 11, 1940 to the late Shirley Harris and John Christian. In addition to her parents, preceding in her death are two sons, Hosea Porter and William Rice, and her brother James Rice. Tee departed this life on Wednesday, March 21, 2018, surrounded and cared for by her loving family.

Tee was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools System. She was once employed by the Baltimore City Department of Social Services. Opting to terminate her employment with the city, she returned home to provide care to her eight children. As a homemaker, she perfected her domestic skills. A talented untrained seamstress, Tee made items such as curtains, slip covers for the couch, and prom dresses for the neighborhood girls. There are so many funny and special stories surrounding her sewing skills and her choice of fabrics chosen (hint: the flower child). She enjoyed gardening, having the ability to revive a lifeless plant. She was active in the Afro Clean Block Association, a community-based program, where she assisted with planning community parties and activities. She was very passionate about her mother and Aunt Lala, enjoyed traveling with Carter, was a lover of music and playing the slot machines at any casino she could visit. Overall, she enjoyed life.

Tee leaves to mourn: six children, Maria, Bruce, Ronald, Sherman, Marvin, and Sharise; two daughters-in-law, Tonya and Pam; six siblings, Eugene Rice-Bey, William Rice- Bey, Jacqueline Manns, Ricky Rice, Shirley Vincent, and Teresa Woolfolk; eighteen grandchildren, James (Mannie), Bruce, Keith, Michael, Shamika, Ebony, Dont'e and Denae (twins) Brandon, Eric (Mookie), Brittany, Samera, Glen, Jessica, Marvin, Sherrod, Sebastian, and Emory; eighteen great-grandkids; a long time companion, Winfrey "Carter" Cosby; and a host of family and friends.
