

Emma S. Allmond

February 9, 1930 - May 2, 2002

We, the children of the late Emma Sue Bagby Allmond, assemble at this time to pay our last respects to our beloved mother. Last Thursday, May 2, 2002, the sweet spirit of our dear mother went to join our Heavenly Father in a land that is free of sickness, sorrow, pain and death. Even though we did everything we could to comfort her during her lengthy illness, we accept that it was God's will that she joined Him. She was born in Mecklenburg County, Virginia. Emma lived most of her life in Baltimore, Maryland. She was a member of the Columbia church of Christ in Columbia, Maryland. Emma was very well loved by many people. She was kind to people, loving and non-judgmental. She loved her children and grandchildren and endeavored to counsel them in the right way to go, struggling to provide them with the advantages they would need. She was a great mother and grandmother. She is mourned by five of her six children; Barbara of Voorhees, New Jersey; Joan of Greensboro, North Carolina; Timothy of Silver Spring, Maryland; Terry (deceased); Calvin of Randallstown, Maryland and Irene of Elkridge, Maryland. Seven grandchildren; one sister, Edna; one brother, John; nieces, nephews, cousins and many dear friends also survive her.

“ Sometimes words just are not enough to take away our grief, so we rely on God for help and strength in our belief. May He uplift you greatly, take the sorrow that you bear, than comfort you with healing in the safety of His care... May God's love comfort you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
