

Emmajeane Fitzgerald

September 13, 1961 - May 8, 2019

Emmajeane Fitzgerald, daughter of the late Torance Burroughs and Betty Lancaster was born on September 13, 1961 in Baltimore, Maryland.

Emmajeane was called home on May 8, 2019 to be with the Lord and entered into eternal rest. Emma attended Venable High School of Baltimore City when she received the craft of home economics. Emmajeane was a cook helper for the Department of Correction and Charming. She also was a custodian for Douglas Homes Projects. Emmajeane was joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Stevie Fitzgerald and out of this union, one daughter Kizzey Fitzgerald was born. Over the years, Emma held many talents from her touches for decorating to making picture collages. Emma also loved gifts. Emma spared no expense when it came to spending on her family and friends. Emma enjoyed spending time with family and friends even if it meant long hours on the phone or going Live for Facebook.

Diva Queen enjoyed dancing and being a devoted mother, grandma, great grandmother, sister, aunt, cousin, friend, and neighbor. Diva Queen had a warm smile and welcoming personality but with no hesitation to get you straight. Emma lived her life to the fullest and will be greatly missed by those who loved and had the pleasure of knowing her. Emma accepted Jesus Christ as her Savior and was under her Leadership of Pastor Dunn. Emmajeane was preceded in death by her grandson Arthur Peacock III, brother, Torance, sister, Theresa and sister-in-love, Patricia.

Those who shared the joy of life with her are left to cherish her memory: one daughter, Kizzey Fitzgerald; one granddaughter, Keontae Laster; one great grandson, Xavier Amir Emanuel Scott; sisters, Easter (Herman), Dornice, Sonia, Annette, and Pam; brothers, Toreno, Barry (Paulette), Anthony and Jamal; a lifetime partner, William; godmother, Eunice; six godchildren and a host of relatives, friends, and church family.

Emma will be truly missed on Comet Street. I can't imagine this summer without her loud voice calling my name..wrong. I can only find comfort in knowing she's with Lil Arthur now and they both are at peace. My condolences to the entire family and friends.
