Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, love leaves a memory no one can steal" (Author unknown).

Adieu Sir Emma Chinaka, an honorable man, a gentleman extraordinaire. Though we bid you farewell today with eyes filled with tears and heart full of ache, we feel consoled with the beautiful memories you left behind. May these memories be a source of comfort, peace and strength to your family, friends and loved ones who sorely miss you. We have no doubt that you are finally resting peacefully in heaven surrounded by the Angels who took you home. May your light continue to shine through your family, and may God comfort your family and give them strength as they go through this season of grief.
