

Emory Maurice Choice

October 6, 1922 - November 9, 2001

Emory Maurice Choice, was born on October 6, 1922 to the late Early and Jessie Choice in Winona, West Virginia. He departed this life on November 9, 2001 at Sinai Hospital. He was born a twin, Emory and Elise. They shared fun times together over the years. He graduated from Fayette County High School, in Montgomery, West Virginia. After graduation, Emory moved to Baltimore, Maryland. In June of 1944, he began his career at Conrail and retired there in 1983. Shortly after migrating to Baltimore, he became engaged and married his beloved, Edna Blackwell on January 26, 1957 until her death. Emory and Edna devoted their lives being parents to Tyra since 1972. He was always willing to help anyone in need. He enjoyed sitting in the backyard with his friends eating crabs. Mr. Choice (as he was known to many) loved keeping his neighborhood clean. He would cut grass and trim hedges, just to name a few of the outdoor things he liked to do. Emory leaves to mourn his devoted and loving daughter, Tyra S. Chaney, son-in-law, George Chaney, three sisters, Elsie, Marion and Tot of New York and West Virginia, four grandchildren, Teontae, Antonio, Tania and Reniera, two great-grandchildren, Tre?Quaniek and Janera all of Baltimore, Maryland. He also leaves to mourn his two loyal and devoted friends, James (Chetta) Peoples and Clarence (Butch) Coles, nieces, nephews and a host of relatives and friends.

“ Dear Daddy, I miss you so much and I just got the internet back on and I know that I wil see you soon. Sometimes I feel that I ready to leave this world before God calls me home. Because of the pain that I feel so all alone. I know for the kids and Gods will I must continue to hold on. So until that time come I pray to do the will of God, and be strong..... I love you Nu-Nu##imported-begin##Tyra Chaney##imported-end##
