

Enid Williams Costley

July 7, 1941 - October 19, 2021

Enid Williams Costley, daughter of Lester Sterling and Louise Guinness was born on July 7, 1941 in Prospect Portland, Jamaica, West Indies. Enid departed this life on October 19, 2021 due to a long-term illness.

While living in Jamaica, she gave birth to four children with her partner Rudolph Peckoo, Devonne, Dave, Karlene and Dean. As a child Enid received her education from Lyndale Girls School, located in Prospect, Portland Jamaica. Enid was an astute business woman and a very charitable person. She always tried to help those who were less fortunate and opened her home to many people.

In the summer of 1967, she migrated to the United States of America to seek better opportunities. While living in the United States, Enid became a nurse and worked at Rosewood State Hospital. She also met and married William Costley and had two children, Mezerena Costley and Badarie Costley. Enid also held a special place in her heart for foster children and often opened her home to them.

Enid loved her flowers, to garden and was an avid cook and caterer. She loved her food spicy and expressed herself with that same spice. She would put hot peppers in everything. She was fond of traveling to Jamaica accompanied by her grandsons, Kendell and Karran Costley.

She was predeceased by her husband William Costley, daughter Karlene Peckoo, sons Dean Peckoo and Badarie Costley. She leaves to cherish her memory two daughters, Devonne Friday (Jonathan), and Mezerena Wells; one son Dave Peckoo (Robin); one brother Samuel Langley sister Carmen Williams; grandchildren Star Mitchell, India and Aisjah Stuckey, Cerina Turner, Devonne and Amanda Franklin, Kendall Costley, Karran Costley, Autumn Costley, Devin and Logan Peckoo, Naja Lennon, other greatgrandchildren and a host of other family members and friends.

“ Aunt Enid was as spicy as the "spicy-fish" dish she made for me without fail. She made sure that when I came home from my military life or during visits to see my daughter, that she prepared a trough of spicy fish just for me. I appreciated her remembering that her "spicy-fish" dish was one that I loved. My fondest memory of my Aunt was seeing she did things HER way regardless if the decision was right or wrong. The goal of life is to hold on tight as life presents twists and turns and she showed us how to do just that. Rest well in heavenly places and when you see my Uncle Joe, let him know he is MISSED. Your time has come to rest well Lil soldier. Thank you for showing us a little about how to navigate this thing called LIFE.

“ I share this memory/take away with my family, if I did not get one thing from Enid other than the love of spicy fish... it was to put your issues in writing and it will get the attention it needs. She had my sister and I write to whoever needed to hear our issue. I still carry this with me today, Thanks Enid. May you rest in Heaven.
