

Eric Alan Easton

August 10, 1957 - March 20, 2006

ERIC ALAN EASTON was born to Delores B. Easton and the late Ulysses T. Easton on August 10, 1957 in Baltimore, Maryland. Two brothers, Michael and Antonio Easton preceded him in death. Eric quickly and quietly went home to be with the Lord on Monday, March 20, 2006. He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System. In 1976, he graduated from Frederick Douglass Senior High School. While a student there, he was a member of the football, track & field, and wrestling teams. Immediately following high school, he was enlisted in the United States Army and served in the Transportation Unit. At the time of his demise, he was employed at Seiler Hughes as a data entry Specialist. He was employed there for ten years and was a valuable asset to the company and all who worked with him. Eric was a tireless advocate for equality and justice. He was affiliated with many organizations and committees that helped to promote the health, financial, racial and social well being of our society. To name a few: All People's Congress, Ancestor's Roots Inc., C. Miles and the Underground Posse, The Children's First Movement, Concerned Citizens for Police Accountability & Review, The Final Analogy, I Can't We Can, Just You & Me (MSU Talk Radio Show, WEAA-88.9 FM), The Mark Steiner Show (Talk Radio Show, WYPR-88.1 FM), Million Man March, Millions More Movement, NAACP, Nation of Islam, National Action Network, (Former Vice-President), and Unity for Action (Co-Founder). It was never uncommon to see Eric grab a bullhorn and rally for the causes that he firmly believed were important to Our people. He will always be remembered for his ability to unite people of all racial and social backgrounds. He will always be remembered as an advocate for change. On November 11, 1987 he was joined in holy matrimony to his sweetheart, Mamie E. Dorsey. He was very devoted to his wife and children. Eric and Mamie went on numerous trips and always seemed to live in the honeymoon phase of their marriage. He was always loving and supportive of his children and grandchildren. He was equally loving and devoted to his entire family and all of his friends. He always came to family events with a big smile and made everyone laugh. You could always depend on him to be there if you needed him. Eric was the biggest fan of the Baltimore Ravens and Maryland Terps. Eric had many hobbies and special interests. Among them was his love for writing poetry. He also loved his dog King, and treated him as though he was a child. He leaves to cherish memory: a devoted and loving wife, Mamie E. Easton; a devoted and proud mother, Delores B. Easton; one daughter, Tiffany; two sons, Aaron and Renault; one brother, Ricardo Parker Sr.; two sisters, Moncia Brooks and Lisa Easton; one son-in-law, Russell Jackson Sr.; seven grandchildren, Russell Jr., Eric, D'Andra, Lesha, Tamira, Darian, and Shakira; six brothers-in-law, Rodney, Edward, Jimmie, Pete, Lawrence and Nathaniel; four sisters-in-law, Carolyn, Elizabeth, Gwendolyn, and Barbara; four aunts, Louise, Daisy, Sonia and Joyce; five uncles, Charles, Harold, William, George and Robert; one god-mother, Yetta Burton; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I will always think and miss Eric. I met him three years ago and feel especially blessed to have known him. He loved his family as well as looking out for his fellow man. He has left a void in your life as well as all who has known him. We know he is in a better place but I wish we could have him back. Bless you and may the Lord keep you.##imported-begin##Denise Lowery##imported-end##

“ Eric, thank you for getting me off my rusty-dusty and making me get out there and fight for RIGHT. Now that you've passed the baton, I'll be striving for it but I'll never, ever be able to "carry it" like you did. I've always looked up to you...now when I look up I'll know where you are..."Blessed are the pure in heart; for they shall see God.."..Mark 5,8.##imported-begin##Al from Cherry Hill##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mr. Easton. In difficult times such as this, it is comforting to know that the holy scriptures is a source of comfort. Acts 24:15 expresses a resurrection hope that will take place in the future. Please read Christ Jesus expression about the resurrection at John 11:20-27. May you all rely and find comfort from the holy scriptures.##imported-begin##V Adams##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for your loss. Mr. Easton sounds like a remarkable man. I am sure that he was greatly loved by his family and everyone who knew him. I know that he is sorely missed. Death is the enemy that we never get used to. But the Bible gives us hope for a resurrection at John 5:28-29 where Jesus promises that, "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out". This scripture has brought comfort to many. I hope that this will comfort you as well##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello" Easton's !May the peace of our heavenly father be with you all today. Death touches all of our lives today in one way or another. I know the feeling to losing some one in death too. It leaves a huge lost of feeling for a while in our lives. The bible helps to gives that feeling of life back to us as time goes on. We can find great hope from the bible such as Romans15;4. May we all look forward to the time when no one will ever die again as Isa.25:8 say that death will be swallow up forever. I send my condolences. L.C.##imported-begin##L.C.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
