

Eric Lee Carter

August 18, 1961 - March 16, 2018

Today we celebrate the life of Eric Lee Carter. Eric was born August 18, 1961 in Richmond to Nannie Marie Carter and Junius Carter, Sr. He was preceded in death by his father Junius Carter, Sr., a brother Alvin DeWayne Shelton Sr., and a sister June Carter Ratliff. He is survived by his mother Nannie Carter, a brother Junius Carter, Jr., two sisters Deborah Carter and Carolyn Carter and many nieces and nephews and extended family.

Eric attended Richmond Public Schools where he played football and basketball. He also coached recreational sports. He was an avid New England Patriots football fan. He worked as a cook most of his life for several different establishments. His longest tenure was with Aramark Food Services where he was employed for over 20 years. He loved music, clean cars and cooking. He had a great love for musical bands, Mary J. Blige and old school R&B music.

Eric passed away on March 16, 2018 peacefully after a short illness. In his final days he fought hard to stay here with us. However, the most high wanted and needed him more. His work here had been done. His kindness will forever be cherished. He is loved and already missed.
