

Eric L. Carter

February 3, 1959 - July 23, 2013

ERIC LEROY CARTER, son of the late Stanley L. Carter and Marian H. Carter, was born on February 3, 1958 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on July 23, 2013.

He was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System. He also received certification in Meat Cuttery and Furniture Upholstery. He was employed by Turner-N-White (1982-1986), Baltimore Convalescent Home (1983-1986), Northwest Hospital (1987-1991), Standard Medical (1992-1997) and Goodwill (2007-2010).

Eric made numerous friends wherever he went through his personality and comedic stories. He was an avid weightlifter and basketball player, earning the nickname "Cartwright." He will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him.

He also leaves to mourn: his brother, Gregory S. Carter I; (a sister, Wanda L. Carter preceded him in death); sister-in-law, Faith A. McKethan-Carter; an aunt, Ellener Hammack; nephews, Bryant D. Carter, Dometrius T. Carter, H. Rodney Woodson and Gregory Carter II; and nieces, Dawn L. Carter and Erika R. Blackston-Woodson; and a host of many other relatives and friends.

“ I extend my condolences to the family of Eric Carter. May you find comfort from the God of all comfort, who helps us cope with our grief. The Bible promises at Revelation 21:4 - "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Psalms 37:9,10,11,29 helps us appreciate the we will have an opportunity to see Mr. Carter again in the coming paradise, here on earth, under peaceful and righteous conditions. I hope that these scriptures provide comfort to you and your family.
