

Eric L. Hill

March 8, 1961 - February 12, 2003

Eric Lamont Hill (a.k.a. Little E. Easy) made his debut into the lives of Doris Johnson and the late Earlston F. Hill, Sr. On March 8, 1961. Eric took his leave from this race on February 12, 2003. Eric received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools and received a degree at Hagerstown Community College in Building and Maintenance. He was reared as a Christian and later converted to Islamic faith. Eric's hobbies were reading and basketball, but the joy of his life was his daughter Erica. One of his dreams was to own his own business, and in July of 2000 this dream became a reality. He and his brother opened E & E Fashions and Accessories on Washington Boulevard. He spent his time building the business and sharing himself with the community. Eric made many friends and touched many lives. He leaves to lovingly remember him: daughter, Erica Hill; mother, Doris Johnson; three brothers, Earlston Jr., Durante, and Derrick Hill; one niece, Tamika Pinkney; one nephew, Jordan Hill; one great-niece, Brianna Pinkney; one nephew-in-law; Lavar Pinkney; adopted sons, Aaron and Eric Armstrong; grandmother, Catherine Seay; aunt, Vera Baker; uncle, Minister Gordon Baker; seven cousins; and a special friend, Theresa Harrison.

“ To The Family of Eric L. Hill: I am sorry to hear of the loss of your loved one. Please find comfort in the words of John 5:28,29 where Jesus said "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life.##imported-begin##sharon hill##imported-end##
