

Eric Randolph Elliott

September 11, 1972 - July 2, 2003

Eric Randolph Elliott, Jr., son of the late Eric Randolph Elliott, Sr. and Jacqueline Lowery, was born on September 11, 1972 in Baltimore, Maryland. He suddenly departed this life on July 2, 2003. Eric, a lifelong resident of the Govans community, attended St. Mary's Catholic Church of Govans, and was a graduate of Chinquapin Middle School and Northern High School. He was employed at Proctor and Gamble Company as a Production Line Supervisor. Eric was a devoted father and a loving, giving, sharing person who was loved by many. He always had a radiant smile, even in the face of adversity. His "can do" attitude sprang from his favorite quote and belief, "Don't worry, God will take care of it." It can truly be said that to know him was to love him. He leaves to mourn: his lifelong mate and mother of his children, Talanda E. Henderson; two daughters, Jacqueline R. Elliott and Erika S. Elliott; a son, Eric Randolph Elliott III; and a host of relatives and friends who dearly loved him and will forever cherish his memory.
