“ Uncle Eric was always welcoming, warm, and fair. He could talk to anyone about anything and that’s what I love most about him. I loved how he started and ended sentences “niece of mine” “brother of mine” I thought it was weird, but it was all apart of what made him unique. I remember loving my uncle and thinking man this man is stubborn. But every year I got to see him he seemed a little softer, with a smile a little brighter, I like to think that was aunt Sherry’s doing.

Please celebrate the fullness of his life and the love he had burning inside, and I pray we all find peace in knowing someone as amazing as him.

“ Big brother God saw you getting tired when a cure was not to be so he wrapped his arms around you and whispered Come unto me you didn't deserve what you were going through so god gave you a rest you made a bad decision you left me alone living a pain I feel is real not fiction you are my big brother my best friend I will remember you forever and always my love and thoughts I'm sending because my tears will have no ending don't tell me you know how I feel even though it may be true this grief is mine for what length of time it takes me to get through your little brother rocky
