

Erica N. Gilmer

June 30, 1983 - November 25, 2002

Miss Erica N. Gilmer, daughter of Stanley and Denise Gilmer, was born on June 30, 1983, in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on November 25, 2002, due to medical complications. Erica received her education at Kennedy Krieger Career and Technology High School. She was attending The Community college of Baltimore County, Dundalk Campus, Dundalk, Maryland, and was an honor student during her tenure there. Erica was a member of St. Paul Community Baptist Church, where she received God in her life at the young age of eight years old. She was a member of the Voices of St. Paul Community Baptist Church and served proudly as a member of the Junior and Young Adult Ushers. Everyone whose life she touched loved Erica. She possessed a Christian spirit and exuded nothing but kindness. Erica enjoyed music and wrestling. She loved getting her hair and nails done, and always commented, " a girl has always got to look good!" Erica was a great inspiration to her family and friends, and she maintained a positive attitude throughout her life. Erica leaves to cherish her memory: devoted and loving parents, Stanley and Denise Gilmer of Baltimore, Maryland; a grandmother, Margaret Gilmer of Baltimore, Maryland; a godmother, Valerie Jenkins of Baltimore, Maryland; three sisters, Valerie Bryant, Tinnnet Gilmer, and Christina Gilmer, all of Baltimore, Maryland; one brother, Edward Gilmer of Baltimore, Maryland; six aunts, Millie Mena and Valeria White of Parkville, Maryland, Sheree Gilmer, Debora Gilmer, Michele Gilmer, and Toni Hubbard, all of Baltimore, Maryland; three uncles, Martin Gilmer, Tyrone Gilmer, and Herman

Hubbard, all of Baltimore, Maryland; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, and other relatives and friends.
