

Erik David Knight

January 2, 1980 - June 18, 2006

ERIK DAVID KNIGHT was born on January 2, 1980 to the late Larry Knight and Ellen Knight in Baltimore, Maryland. At a tender age, Erik accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior and was baptized in Jesus' name at the Refuge Way of the Cross Church of Christ in Baltimore, Maryland. Though he departed this earthly life at a young age, his life of love and humility has left a footprint on the hearts and minds of his family and friends. We can take comfort in the words found in Isaiah, chapter 57 verses 1-2, "The righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart; and merciful men are taken away, none considering that the righteous is taken away from the evil to come. He shall enter into peace: they shall rest in their beds, each one walking in his uprightness." Erik was affectionately called "Peanut" by his family and "Brother Bomani" by many in the community. Because of his love and concern for the welfare of his community, Erik adopted the name Bomani, which means "Warrior." He was determined to use his talents to help the Baltimore community become a better, safer place. Erik was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating from Carver High School with a specialty in Culinary Arts. He was awarded many awards for his literary endeavors and attended Columbia State University and Baltimore City Community College. Erik was a gentle person who loved everyone. To know Erik was to truly love him. Erik is survived by: his loving mother, Ellen Knight; brother, Lamont Knight; sister, Cherese Knight; godbrother, Maurice Willis; niece, Evelyn Knight; grandfather, Elliott Daughtry Sr.; uncles, Ernest, Hosea and Sam; aunts, Christine, Judy, and Victoria; great-aunts and -uncles; cousins, friends, and brothers and sisters of the community. While we will miss his physical presence - his gentle laugh, humble smile, love-filled hugs and words of peace and comfort, we can take comfort in. God's eternal words as written in the gospel of John, chapter 11 verses 25-26, "Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: and whosoever liveth and believeth in Me shall never die. Believeth thou this?"

“ Dear Family, Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. First Corinthians chapter 15, verse 26 tells us that death is our enemy and that death itself will one day be done away with. There is hope of our loved ones being restored to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. Yes, Acts 24:15 declares- "there is going to be a resurrection". May you receive much comfort and strength from these loving promises found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I am writing to send my deepest condolences to the family of Erik David Knight. I don't believe I knew him although his face looks very familiar, however, I have experienced the lost of a loved one. In addition, I feel led to invite the survivors of Erik to my home church: Set the Captives Free Outreach Center in Woodlawn. My church holds a bi-monthly bereavement ministry (2nd/4th Mondays @7p) called Life after Loss. It has helped me a great deal and I pray that you allow for it to assist you in such a time as this. May God Bless you!##imported-begin##Angie##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so bad when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am compelled by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Knight's ! May I express my condolences to the knights in the lost of Erik on June 18,06.Erik was almost 26 years. There were so many thing no doubt he wanted to do and so little time . The bible say that soon we will be able to live forever never worrying about the effect of dying. Our young people are the future. May comfort come from our heavenly father as 2 Cor. 1:3 through our tribulation. May all the support from your family and friends help to heal the pain left from losing a dear one. Me fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
