“ May you have comfort and peace from our loving heavenly father above who comforts us during all of our tribulations. Death is truly a hard blow for a family to cope with, but know this that one day God promises to do away with this enemy that causes us so much pain. 1st Cor 15:26. The dead are temporarily asleep in the graves, and one day they will hear Jesus's voice and come up out of those memorial tombs. John 5:28,29, Acts 24:15. May your cherished memories of Erma help you to cope in the days ahead. I invite you to contact me at my e-mail address, so that I can share with you from the bible God's wonderful purpose for his people. May you be comforted.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ *I am sorry for your loss. The death of a loved one is such a painful time. This is a sorrow that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation". “ I would like to convey my condolences for the loss of your loved one. Sickness and death was never a part of Jehovah God's original purpose because time indefinite was put into our hearts (Eccl.3:11). John5:28-29 and Acts 24:15 promises that there is going to be a resurrection to perfect life on a paradise earth (Psalm37:11,29). Continue to draw close to God in prayer and he will sustain you (Psalm55:22).##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##
