

Erma Pinkney

November 20, 1933 - September 17, 2010

ERMA DORIS PINKNEY, daughter of the late James S. and Madeline Craig, was born on November 20, 1933 at home on McCullough Street in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life on September 17, 2010 after a lengthy illness.

She graduated from Frederick Douglass High School in 1951; received her AA Degree from Essex Community College in 1954; graduated from the Adelphi School of Business in Brooklyn, New York in 1962; and received her BA Degree from the University of Baltimore in 1981.

Erma was employed as a nurse all of her career. First as a Licensed Practical Nurse (LPN) at Baltimore City Hospital (which is now known as John Hopkins Hospital-Bayview) until 1978. Afterward she went on to work at Spring Grove Hospital as a Registered Nurse (RN) until she retired in 2002.

She loved to travel, go to the casino, was very outgoing and very devoted to her family.

She was preceded in death by: three brothers, Leon, William and Melvin and two sisters, Barbara and Audrey.

Erma leaves to mourn: brother, Thurston; and sister-in-law, Geraldine; along with a host of nieces and nephews.

She also leaves behind her special companion, friend and “child” Midnight Blue Pinkney.
