

Ernest B. Gladden

June 11, 1915 - January 13, 2004

Ernest Bernard Gladden, son of the late Alfred and Victoria Gladden was born on June 11, 1915 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on January 13, 2004 at Mercy Hospital after a brief illness. He was educated in the public schools of Baltimore City. Ernest became employed at the old Catspaw Rubber Heels and Soles Company in South Baltimore. In Later years he went to work at Mercy Hospital in the Dietary Department until he was forced to retire due to illness. He was a life long member of St. Edwards Roman Catholic Church, proudly serving as an usher and as a member of the Holy Name Society. Ernest loved his church and made himself readily available whenever he was called. Two nieces, Brenda Armstrong and Lenore Kelly; one great niece, Victoria Armstrong; two nephews, Joseph Armstrong, Jr. and Steven Armstrong survive him. Ernest was the last survivor of his immediate family. He will be greatly missed by all of us who loved him.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at John 11:25,26 where Jesus says "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; and everyone that is living and exercises faith in me will never die at all." May you be comforted by this scripture.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##

“ To the Gladden's Family: I am sorry to learn of your loss. I send my sincere condolences to the family and friends. It may seem unfair that death has the power to take away someone that you love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises a "resurrection" into a beautiful paradise.{Acts 24: 15 & Luke 23: 43}. I pray that you rely on God's many promises for strength in the days to come.##imported-begin##Denise King##imported-end##
