

Ernest Broadie Sr.

August 28, 1945 - October 24, 2022

Rev. Ernest Ray Broadie, Sr. was born on August 28, 1945 in Warrenton, North Carolina to Eddie Broadie and Josephine (Griggs) Broadie. He quietly answered God's call October 24, 2022. Ernest received his formal education at North Warrenton High School in Warrenton, North Carolina. For more than 20 years, he was a dedicated employee with Champion Box Company. At an early age, Ernest accepted Christ. Later in life, he was called to the ministry and became an ordained minister at Triumphant Baptist Church. He was passionate about his love for God and always showed it by his service and the way he treated people. He was known for his sunshine smile and how it brightened a room when he entered. Rev. Broadie demonstrated love through his support for family, friends, church and community. He was co-pastor of Community Prayer Temple. His spiritual giving was being instrumental in leading many people to Christ. He often talked about his relationship with God and that God had been good to him. Ernest was united in holy matrimony to his best friend and companion, Vivian Davis. Their union was blessed with three children. He was an devout husband, father, and grandfather who was a devoted provider for his family. That positively impacted the journey of his children's lives. During his leisure-time, he enjoyed watching westerns, eating barbecue sandwiches, drinking a good, ice cold, Pepsi, and looking at '57 model cars.

He was preceded in death by his parents and four siblings, Milton, Alvin, Eddie and Clarence. Rev. Broadie leaves cherished his memories to his beloved family: adoring wife, Vivian; son, Ernest Jr. (Dalana); daughters, Adrian and Veronica (Shane); grandchildren, Jerell, Brandon, Kiara, Anthony, Asia, Devonté, Erika, Tionica, Shane Jr., and Shania; great-grandchildren, Jorell, Karleigh Ray, Kingston, Kae'lyn and Elle'Jah; sister, Joan; brothers, Andrew, Curtis and David Lee; nieces; nephews; a host of other relatives, extended church family, and dear friends.
