

Ernest Davis, Jr.

November 29, 1946 - February 18, 2018

Ernest Davis, Jr., (affectionately called Bubba), son of the late Ernest and Elreda Davis, was born on November 29, 1946 in Clarendon County, South Carolina. He departed this life peacefully on Sunday, February 18, 2018 after a lengthy illness.

Ernest graduated from Baltimore City College (BCC), which was known at that time as "The Castle on the Hill."

He served in the U.S. Army for several years, and he was proud to be a soldier. You could see the pride in his face when he wore his dress uniform. He married Rochelle Hunter on March 1, 1969. Ernest was Honorably Discharged from the Armed Forces in October 1969.

Ernest worked for the Maryland Transit Administration (MTA) for a number of years where he navigated through the streets of Baltimore driving passengers to their various destinations, wearing the big smile he would so often show upon greeting everyone.

He loved to read and study the Bible and he also enjoyed watching television. You could often find him watching the History Channel or a program about nature. He was a sensitive and caring person and those he encountered often commented about how pleasant he was to be around.

Ernest was preceded in death by three sisters, Jeanette Thomas, Runette Davis, and Mary Davis; and one beloved grandson, Seth Uriyah Carrington.

Ernest leaves to mourn: his children, Rebecca Davis, Chaundra Parker (Ward) and Tiana Davis; two sisters, Barbara Rodgers and Bonnie Magwood (Milton); two brothers, Tyrone Cheeseboro and Carl Davis; seven grandchildren and five great grandchildren; three very dear aunts, Lena Bragg, Sarah Lewis, and Mary Lou Shaw; and numerous nieces, nephews, cousins and a host of other relatives and friends.
