“ Please accept my condolences. Losing a loved one in death is a painful time. This is a pain that Jehovah God promises will one day no longer exist (Revelation 21:3,4). May you take comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father promises us that soon all those in the memorial tombs will come to life on a paradise earth by means of a resurrection (John 5:28,29 and Psalms 37:29). As you await the fulfillment of this promise, may you find comfort from "the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort who comforts us in all our tribulation" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4).##imported-begin##S. “ To the friends and family of Mr. Davis I would like to express my deepest sympathy. When we lose a love on in death it can bring much sorrow, but when we feel this way may we draw comfort from what God tells us in his word the Bible there in Rev. 21:4 it talks about a time when Jehovah will do away with death, this will be a wonderful time, but not only that in Ps. 37:10,11 it shows we can enjoy a peaceful life here on earth with no wickedness around. This is a promise that will come true and we can be apart of it if we look to God for comfort.##imported-begin##D. Farmer##imported-end##

“ To the Family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort as you reflect on the promise of the resurrection. Jesus demonstrated this hope with his friend Lazarus at John 11:38-44. The resurrection hope is real and gives us much to look forward too.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##
