March 3, 1915 - September 16, 2004

Ernest Gaither was suddenly called home from this earthly life on Thursday, September 16, 2004. Born in Great Falls, South Carolina, on March 3, 1915, he was the son of the late James Gaither and Elizabeth McBride. Ernest received his education in the public schools in Great Falls, South Carolina. In 1943, he served in the United States Army. He was joined in Holy Matrimony in 1946 to Ruth Cunningham. They moved to Baltimore, Maryland in 1947. He was employed at the Acme Stores for twenty years. In addition to his parents, a brother, John B. Gaither, preceded him in death. He loved to fish, hunt and work his garden. He made numerous friends. Ernest was father to several nieces and nephews, even though he had no children of his own. He cared what happened in his neighborhood and often tried to encourage the children to do well. He was a man who was very outspoken. He kept a daily watch over his surroundings from his favorite chair on his back porch. He leaves to cherish his memory: his loving wife, of fifty-eight (58) years, Ruth Gaither; a sister, Annie Lee Hollomon; several nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ To the family and friends, I know you long to see your loved one again and the Bible promises a time when we can do just that. At John 5:28, 29 it speaks of "all in memorial tombs will come out". All look forward to this time. Please read your Bible to draw comfort##imported-begin##D. Samuel##imported-end##

“ I would like to send my condolences at a time of much heartache and grief. I pray that the comfort of God will bring the healing to all those affected over this lost. How blessed we all are to know despite the painful effects of death our God Jehovah have promised a relief from our enemy death. Rev. 21:3-4 states death will no longer exist and will no longer cause mourning nor out cry or pain anymore. He say's death will be swallowed up according to Is. 25:8-9. However Jehovah's greatest promise he say's, the dead will live again according to Is. 26:19. That is truly a wonderful hope. Our very loved ones lost to death will live again. Yes their state is temporary like a sleep.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia Briscoe##imported-end##
