

Ernest Gene McGriff

December 17, 1966 - March 1, 2003

On December 17, 1943 in Lancaster, South Carolina, Earnest Gene McGriff, also known as “Hot Rod,” was born to the late Clarence and Janie McGriff. He was one of fourteen children. He left South Carolina in 1966, to venture to Baltimore. He met and married Joann Harris. He left five children, Earnest Lee, Timothy, Brian, Lisa and Valerie McGriff. He leaves ten grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. His sisters and brothers that survived him are: Mamie and Wylie of Prince Georges County, Annie Ruth and Janie Mildred of North Carolina, Cleatus, Samuel, Harward, Dannie-ree, Geraldine and Sylvester of South Carolina. He is also survived by his two special friends, Patricia Parker and Earnest Lucas; and a host of other family and friends. He was a lover of his children and grandchildren. He loved to work on cars in his spare time. He was always a helping hand to anyone in need. He touched so many lives in big and small ways. He will surely be missed.
