

Ernest Goodman

August 15, 1953 - August 5, 2015

Ernest Goodman was born on August 15, 1953 in Baltimore City to the late Robert and Queen Goodman. He departed this life on August 5, 2015 at Sinai Hospital.

Ernest received his education in the Baltimore City School System, graduating from Edmondson High School in 1972. During his high school career, Ernest was very athletic, participating in football, wrestling and track. He furthered his education at a trade school for home improvement and barbering School. For thirty years, he worked as a Master Barber at Esquire Barbershop in lower Mondawmin Mall.

While barbering was Ernest's profession, he shared a love for artistic hobbies such as: photography, playing musical instruments, drawing and painting. Some of his artwork was adored and purchased by many. One of his pieces is currently being displayed in the New Christian Memorial Church, which he attended as a child. He was affectionately known as "Ernie" and "Goodie". Ernie was a strong man, as well as a man of many words. His boisterous laughs, jokes and opinions could be heard for miles away, for he was a great debater. A dependable man, he was also an honest hard worker, and a loving father. You could always find Ernie cutting it up with Champ, Marvin, Reggie and the rest of the Esquire crew in the barbershop.

Ernest met and married his first wife, Phyllis Gray Goodman and from this union five children were born: Teon, Tene', Tad (Boo), Manami and Nnamdi. Phyllis preceded Ernest in death in 1993. Later he married Margaret Faulkner in 2007.

Ernest Goodman leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, wife, Margaret; two daughters, Tene' and Manami; three sons, Teon, Tad and Nnamdi; one step daughter Kelly McCullers; five grandchildren, Corey, Khalil, Teon, Quintin and Jordan; four siblings, Lillian Crowell, Mary Robinson, Roslyn Carrington, Larry Goodman (Michael Goodman preceded him in death); five brothers-in-law, seven sisters-in-law, eight aunts, three uncles and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ To the family of Ernest L Goodman : I went into the shop today to get my hair cut , I didn't see Ernest so I asked will he be in today and one of the other barbers softly said he passed away on Aug. 5th. I was totally surprised and shocked. It reminded me that our day are numbered and our time is short ,we live one day at a time making the very best of each day loving one another, helping where we can, sharing wisdom and the strength from God to forgive. I will keep you in my prayers.

“ *To the family of Ernest Goodman:
My condolences to you. I can say I have felt the pain in your hearts and how it feels to lose the ones so dear and precious especially, father, son,, brother and friend. God needed another beautiful Angel in Heaven. The Bible provides us with comfort as the words at Isaiah 25:8 show that soon God will swallow up death forever and wipe the tears from all faces. May those words bring you a measure of comfort in this time of sorrow. God loves you and so do I.*

*Ernest was an Edmondson High School Classmate 1972 of mine.
He was such a funny person; it was always a pleasure to see him anytime and anywhere always the same. When he attended the 1972 Class Reunions we would take pictures of classmates for memories.*
