

Ernest Linwood Gray

July 16, 1926 - April 17, 2015

Ernest L. Gray, son of the late Mary E. Gray was born on July 6, 1926 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on April 17, 2015, after a lengthy illness.

“Blinky”, as he was affectionately known, was an only child and at early age he left Baltimore for New York to live with his grandmother, where he started school in the New York Public School System. Ernest later returned to Baltimore and finished his schooling in Baltimore City Public Schools.

Ernest started his career as a truck driver for the Goodwill Foundation and was later drafted into the military where he did the same work. After being honorably discharged he went to work for Anderson and Ireland Hardware Company in Baltimore.

Ernest retired from the H.R. Nicholson company, where they requested him to come back to work a couple of times because they couldn't find anyone to replace him. Ernest was known to tell anyone “that he was able to drive anything” and in fact he was licensed to do just that.

He leaves to mourn: a loving wife, Elsie B Gray; three daughters, Terry Crowder, Theresa Wright, and Ernestine Harris; three sons, Ernest Gray, Jr. Alonzo Gray and Phillip Gray, Sr. two sons-in-laws, two sisters-in-law, twenty grandchildren, numerous great and great-great children, and a host of nieces, nephews, and cousins.
