

Ernest Milton Holden

January 28, 1940 - August 2, 2013

ERNEST MILTON HOLDEN, beloved son of the late Jimmy Holden and Helen V. Smith was born in Accomack County, Virginia on January 28, 1940. God in His infinite wisdom, quietly called him home on Friday, August 2, 2013 at Sinai Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

Ernest received his formal education in the Accomack County Public School System and later the Baltimore City Public School System.

Ernest was employed by several upholstery companies that went out of business. Loving the trade, Ernest decided to start his own business. He became self employed and operated this business for many years.

Ernest enjoyed watching Western movies on television. He could often be found discussing politics and debating the issues. He was never shy about determining the real issues and voicing his opinion about how the problems could be solved. Most of all, Ernest enjoyed shooting the breeze with his family and friends. He always referenced his Virginia upbringing as though it was yesterday. He could spin a story in a manner so convincing that your only option was to burst out in laughter. That laughter and jokester spirit will be missed by all of us whose lives he has touched.

Ernest leaves to mourn: two sons, Anthony and Kevin Holden; three nephews,

Major Harris, Ernest Harris and Timothy Brown; three nieces, Wanda Harris, Helena Harris and Nina Harris; a special cousin and guardian, Ronnie Bailey and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
