

Ernest James Williams

November 4, 1923 - April 25, 2003

Ernest J. Williams, son of the late J.D. and Louise Williams, was born on November 4, 1923 in phoenix, North Carolina. He departed this life on April 25, 2003 in his sleep after a lengthy illness. He was the beloved husband of Ruth H. Williams and loving father to Bernadette Hayes and Cynthia Mackins. He received his education in Phoenix, North Carolina, where he worked at a fertilizer factory before moving to Baltimore, Maryland. He was employed with several companies before retiring from the Baltimore City Public School System with twenty-five years of service. He became a member of Calvary Baptist Church in 1977, and after retiring he joined the Prime Age Fellowship, which he enjoyed attending each week. He was an outgoing, hard-working and fun-loving person who had numerous friends throughout the area. He loved fishing, cars, music and sports. He enjoyed “cutting the fool” with family and friends, including waking up his sister and her family early in the morning. He was always looking out for his sister, grandchildren, nieces and nephews, who will sincerely miss him. He leaves to mourn: his wife, Ruth H. Williams; two daughters, Bernadette Hayes and Cynthia Mackins; two grandsons, Billy B. Mackins Jr. and Errol I. Hayes; granddaughter-in-law, Carrie L. Mackins; four great-granddaughters, DeShaunna, Aryanna, Cayla and Raven; sister, Mary DePugh; aunt, Gertrude Weston; a host of nieces nephews, cousins and friends, including two longtime best friends, Bishop Eugene Earl Everett and Clyde Clemmons; and “adopted” son, Robert Torain.

Tribute Wall

“ Ernest James Williams

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ Ernest James Williams

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM