

Ernest Lionel Lambert

October 5, 1949 - October 24, 2019

Ernest Lionel Lambert entered into eternal rest on Thursday, October 24, 2019. He was born in Farmville, VA to the late Robert James Lambert and Paige Walor Brown on October 5, 1949.

He graduated from John Marshall High School in 1968. Ernest was a lover of learning and went on to earn two more degrees from Howard University and University of Michigan. After completing his education, his path took him from teaching at various institutions to many years spent in flooring installation. This, his second career, allowed him to combine two loves, interacting with people and working with his hands. He is preceded in death by his devoted parents Mr. Robert Lambert, Mrs. Paige Lambert and his brother Robert Lamont Lambert.

Ernest leaves behind to cherish his memories, his children Marc Lambert, Tia Hall-Smith (Donavan), Sonya Cheatham, Tia Gore-Ambrosio (Matthew), grandchildren Gia Smith, Yazmin Ambrosio, sister-in-law Anita Lambert, dear and devoted friend Patricia Molden, and a host of cousins, other relatives, and friends.

“ As I offer my prayers and well-wishes to the family, I hope the fond memories will lend comfort. Ernest will always be remembered as the big cousin who always kept the mood light and fun. He was an accomplice to some of my mischief (as I was his lol), but also a stern voice of reason when needed. I think what I loved most was the stimulating conversation and amazing reading suggestions he always loved to share. His intelligence and compassion for others was endearing. He will be greatly missed.

“ First, my condolences to the family. I met, through his daughter Sonya, Ernest several years ago . Although I didn't spend a tremendous amount of time with him, the time spent was very lighthearted and joy filled. I found him to be very charming, funny and affable. While at a specific family gathering, he openly and easily engaged and was humbled while being around his loved ones. It was truly wonderful to have been a part of that experience; to see the joy and happiness shared by those whom he loved. Let those precious moments and memories last in the souls of all.

“ Ernest and I worked together several years and we've been friends for more than 15 yrs. He always had my back and I had his. In a way, he was like a father to me. He will always be in my heart and will be greatly missed. I miss you bro.

My condolences go out to the family, he was one of the best. My thoughts and prayers go out to you.
