“ To the family. I would to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At a time filled with so much sorrow I hope that you are able to find comfort and hope in the promises recorded in the scriptures, which were written so that through our endurance we may be comforted and have hope. (Romans 15:4) A very heartwarming scripture is found at Isaiah the 25th chapter, verses 8 and 9. It states: “He (Jehovah God) will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. . . . And in that day one will certainly say: ‘Look! This is our God. We have hoped in him, and he will save us. This is Jehovah. We have hoped in him. Let us be joyful and rejoice in the salvation by him.’” What a time to look forward to! May God’s word the Bible ease your pain as we await the fulfillment of these wonderful promises.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ There are no words of sympathy that will ease the pain of losing your loved one, may it comfort you to know that others care, Isaiah 25:8 assures us that in time Jehovah God will do away with the enemy death, in the mean time let the memories of your loved one help you to heal, in time the memories will come without the pain and you will be able to focus not on your loss, but on all the years of love and joy you shared by having Mr. Ernest in your lives. My deepest sympathy is with all of you.##imported-begin##Josephine##imported-end##

“ Dear family, I am so sorry that your loved one has passed away. Death can come so suddenly and unexpectedly, and even if a family member was ill; you still suffer shock when they actually do pass away. It is truly like an unreality when it hits us. Did our heavenly father desire such pain for us? Certainly not! It is his desire for his obedient children to live forever in true peace and security under righteous conditions. One day soon the bible indicates that his wonderful purpose will come to pass. He will create a beautiful new world where sickness and death will be no more. As Isaiah 33:24 states: At that time no resident will say, "I am sick." Then Rev 21:4 says, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." 2nd Peter 3:13 also says: "But there are new heavens and a new earth in which we are awaiting, and in these righteousness is to dwell." Even the dead will benefit, because John 5:28,29 says that all those in the memorial tombs will hear his (Jesus's) voice and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life." May you find comfort in Jehovah's promises, and may his word the bible help you to cope.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

“ Sorry for your lost. It's very difficult when you lose a love one. 1St Corn 1:1-3 tells us about Jehovah " The Father of tender mercies and the God who comfort us through all all our tribulations". Please except these words as some comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Phyllis Duvall##imported-end##
