

Ernest Ulysses Logan

August 12, 1934 - November 6, 2007

Ernest Uylsses Logan, Jr., affectionately known as "Snooky" and "Kojak," son of the late Ernest Ulysses Logan and Louise V. Logan, was born on August 12, 1934 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Tuesday, November 6, 2007 after a short illness. He received his education in Baltimore City public schools. At the age of eighteen, he enlisted in the Air Force, and was honorably discharged after four years of service (1952-1956), at the rank of Airman Third Class. After completing his education and serving his country, Snooky earned a living at a variety of different posts, of course, his primary occupation was servicing the hearts and minds of those around him, but he supported his family for five years servicing trains, and then for twenty two years at Sparrows Point. After his tenure at Sparrows Point, Snooky retired to his three sons David, Marshall, and Darryl, and his lovely wife Lachita Logan. With an unquenchable love for life and an insatiable thirst for knowledge, Snooky commanded the attention of everyone with whom he came into contact. Snooky made friends wherever he went, touching everyone he met with his vibrant spirit, sonorous voice, and brilliant mind. He loved boxing, swimming, everything dealing with nature, crabbing, roller coasters, a plethora of different types of music especially, Opera and Afro-Cuban, picture taking and Drums. Some people say that if you stood still long enough, he'd bang on your head, as if you were his personal Conga drum. His greatest passion however was for making people laugh, think and question every facet of life. Warning: That passion may come with serious stomachaches, respiratory problems and headaches. LOL Snooky was a wonderful friend, loving father and devoted husband. Dr. Laugh Machine could bring you out of even the most somber of moods. Snooky will be sorely missed by his family, friends, colleagues and everyone whose spirit he touched. He is survived by his wife of thirty two years, Lachita E. Logan; three sons, David Logan, Marshall A. Logan, and David L. Terry; four sisters, Barbara Ann Lloyd, Beverly C. St. Rose, Nancy Lee Sterrette, Judith M. St. Rose; step father, Leon St. Rose; mother-in-law, Alice C. Stinnette; father-in-law, Howard E. Stinnette; five sisters-in-law, Sirleta Stinnette, Mylesa Stinnette, Wyteasa Walker, Wennita C. Stinnette, Diane Stinnette; three brothers-in-law, Bernard Sterrette, Kevin A. Walker, Remun D. Stinnette, nieces, nephews, a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. I know this pain is fresh in your mind, because the pain of losing a loved one is so devastating. It's something you never get over. Fortunately the passing of time does make it a little easier to deal with. The best comfort though that we can derive is from consulting the holy word of God, because he lets us know that soon there will be an end to sickness and death forever. Jehovah promises at Isaiah 25,8 that he will swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces." Isn't that a comforting thought? As for those who have already died, he promises in his word the bible that they will be ressurected. His Son Jesus gurranteed that when he paid the ultimate price so that we might have everlasting life. John 3,16. Because of Jehovah"s and Jesus"s great love for us; one day soon all those in the memorail tombs will hear Jesus"s voice and come out. John 5:28,29 May the promises of Jehovah bring you much comfort and strength, and help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R

“ my deepest regrets to earnest logan's family and friends. death is such a blow to all who are left to grieve. but the bible holds out the hope of seeing our dear loved ones who have fallen asleep in death. thanks to Jehovah for sending his son to die for us and much thanks and appreciation to Christ Jesus for being willing to die such a dreadful death to open up the way for us all to live, even though some have fallen asleep in death. Revelation 21:3,4 helps us to see that death is going to be done away with and John 5:28,29 gives us the resurrection hope. also, Psalms 37:9-11,29 shows the peaceful conditions during that time. and, Psalms 72:12-14,16 shows the loving care of our God Jehovah. if, after reading this you decide that you would like to learn more of what God's word has to comfort us, please contact me at my e-mail address:

“ I worked with Ernie since he started Atlantic Cement in the early 80's. He always made me laugh with his ingenious remarks and mannerisms. He was always in a happy mood even when he complained. For 20 plus years I had to get him a special type of shovel that he insisted on, (he never liked it when I would be so cheap he said). To him, his work was a “work of art” and insisted on certain things his way. I will always have fond memories of him every time I look at the special patch he designed for Lafarge and Bethlehem Steel “L” furnace. I use it as coaster and sits right next to my computer. Every time I sit my drink on it, I think of Ernie. May his family find peace and comfort knowing that he was an incredible human being and he will live in the hearts of everyone who knew and loved him.###imported-begin###Charlene###imported-end##
