

ERNEST WALL

December 27, 1934 - March 3, 2020

Ernest "Sug" Wall, affectionately known as "Sug" peacefully transitioned to his heavenly home to be with the Lord on March 3, 2020. He was surrounded by his loving family and friends. He was born in Baltimore, Maryland on December 27, 1934 to the late Effie Thornton and Sylvester Ingram and stepson to the late Eustace Thornton. Ernest was the first born of 12 children; four brothers, Elwood, William, Dwayne and Eustace, Jr.; three sisters, Mender Montgomery, Ida Thornton and Kathleen Ranson (preceded in death). He was a man with a big heart and humble spirit who went out of his way to help anyone in need.

At an early age Ernest accepted Jesus Christ, as his Lord and Savior. He received his formal education in the Baltimore City Public School System. There he excelled in many studies. Sug also was a self-taught man. He additionally educated himself reading the newspaper, books, magazines and listening to the news. He could discuss any topic you wanted to talk about...a great conversationalist and loved to engage in good positive conversations.

Sug was a hardworking man. He was employed with the Bethlehem Steel Company, April 16, 1953. One month later, May 7, 1953 he joined the United States Navy where he served four years and received an Honorable Discharge. After returning home, he resumed the same job at Bethlehem Steel. He continued working for 43 years and 1 month. He proudly retired

January 31, 1997.

Sug married the love of his life, the late Julia Wall on January 24, 1970 (preceded in death). He would laugh with a proudness telling the romantic stories on how he pursued her. He was a very devoted, caring and loving husband and family man. Always there for family and friends...without any hesitation to help anyone.

To now him was to love him...sharp, dapper an deboniar dresser from hat to shoes. He truly was your back in the day dresser...clean from head to toe with jewelry and all. If you wanted to know about a western, he was the man! He knew every western there was and his music background was awesome. Jazz was his love from the 1900's on.

Sug was a strong man and had a pet peeve for cleanliness and cooking. When you came to his house, he would have on his white apron ready to cook something tasty and goood! He would make a banana pudding that was out of this world. Needless to say, his apple cake was in the running. Again, his love for cleaning was also one of his passions. Anytime you came to his house he always was doing some type of cleaning from dusting to washing clothes. We would joke with him about it and he would say, "I'm not washing the machine is doing it."

To family and friends who knew him well, at the top of his priority was his family...loving, caring and supportive. He was an example of dignified, kind hearted and generous men. Those that knew him would say he was as a genuine person.

Ernest leaves to cherish his fond and loving memories three sisters, Diana M. Winkler, Josephine Knox and Veronica (Charles) Shannon, one brother, Reginald Hayes, one of his nieces Karen Thompson and stepdaughter

Jacqueline Gladden (Al) who was his primary caregivers and a host of nieces, nephews and other relatives and dear friends....We give honor and praise for the life of ERNEST "SUG" WALL.

“ *Mr. Sug as he was affectionately know was a bear of a man and as sweet as his nickname.
His big smile will be missed. Now he joins his soulmate, Julia Helen Wall.
2127 Sinclair Lane won't be the same without those two. Kudos to his daughter that "step" up to take care of him even when his wife and her mom passed. Jackie Gladden May the Lord richly bless you for being a consummate caretaker.
Our sympathy and love to the whole family.
